PER/USE

A photograph of a modern hallway piece called 'Guillotine'. It consists of a rectangular mirror mounted on a light-colored wall, with a wooden drawer extending from its bottom edge. The mirror reflects the ceiling and the wall. To the left, a window with a wooden frame and a textured fabric covering is visible. To the right, a green plant is partially seen. The floor is a light, neutral color. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and contemporary.

Guillotine is a sleek hallway piece combining a mirror with a walnut or oak drawer. The drawer, lined with leather and opened by a hidden button, stores your keys and wallet neatly. The design creates the illusion of the mirror cutting through the drawer, merging them into a single unit. Available in round or rectangular shapes, with drawers in natural oiled oak or walnut.
